

Hurricane Disaster Relief

Our thoughts and prayers go out to the many communities recently impacted by the destructive damage and flooding caused by Hurricanes Harvey, Irma, Jose, and Maria. If you would like to contribute to disaster relief efforts in any of the regions below, the following nonprofit organizations are accepting tax-deductible donations. For more specific information, please contact the agencies directly. This information is current as of September 26, 2017.

Florida

Central Florida Foundation \(Orlando\)
Community Foundation of Broward \(Ft. Lauderdale\)
Community Foundation of Collier County \(Naples\)
Community Foundation for Northeast Florida \(Jacksonville\)
Community Foundation for Palm Beach and Martin Counties
Community Foundation of Sarasota County
Community Foundation of Tampa Bay
Gulf Coast Community Foundation \(Venice, Sarasota\)
The Miami Foundation
Southwest Florida Community Foundation \(Ft. Myers\)

Puerto Rico

United for Puerto Rico

South Carolina

Community Foundation of the Lowcountry \(Beaufort, Hilton Head\)

Texas

Greater Houston Community Foundation

Caribbean

The Miami Foundation - U.S. Caribbean Strong Relief Fund supports efforts in small Caribbean island nations and territories, including Antigua & Barbuda, U.S. Virgin Islands, and the Bahamas

Multiple Regions

One America Appeal
American Red Cross
The Salvation Army

To invest in our community by making philanthropy and its benefits available to all.

Do you have a donor-advised fund at The Winston-Salem Foundation?

Remember, you can recommend a grant to these agencies and others via our online donor portal myWSF. If you have any questions about making a grant, please contact Tamisha Keith at tkeith@wsfoundation.org or 336-714-3460.