The Winston-Salem Foundation Announces 2016 Dean Prim and AIFS Scholarship Recipients

The Winston-Salem Foundation is pleased to announce the recipients of the 2016 Dean Prim Scholarship and the AIFS Scholarship.

The Dean Prim Scholarship offers a summer travel program to China and a college scholarship in the amount of $1,500 per year for four consecutive years. Established by Dean Prim's family in 1975, the scholarship honors his dedication to promoting education as a member of the Yadkin County Board of Education, and it is available to juniors and seniors who attend high schools in Davie, Forsyth, and Yadkin counties. The 2016 Dean Prim Scholarship recipients are:

- Katie Elizabeth St. John: Starmount High School
- Phyllis Latrice Elliott: Parkland High School
- Ellen Olivia Spencer: West Forsyth High School

The AIFS (American Institute for Foreign Studies) Foundation awarded a travel scholarship for the China study program to these Dean Prim Scholarship applicants:

- Catherine Michaela Allred: Forbush High School
- Annemarie Elise Marshall: Reagan High School
- Annecy Grace Daggett: R.J. Reynolds High School

The Winston-Salem Foundation is a community foundation that supports charitable programs in the greater Forsyth County area. Founded in 1919 with a $1,000 gift, it now administers approximately 1,300 funds and had total custodial assets of $384.3 million at the end of 2014. In 2014, the Foundation granted $24.8 million to charitable causes, over $2 million of which was through the Community Grants program. Learn more at www.wsfoundation.org.
